

An event organised by MARC

(Manchester Architecture Research Centre)

Architectures, Spaces and Politics

An international workshop looking at the roles 'Architectures' play in the shaping of spatial and political landscapes.

A broad array of speakers will present work on topics such as:

- "Vernacular architecture as self-determination"
- "Nuclear-weapon-free zones"
- "Sustainable architectural decision-making"
- "Carbon-neutral futures"
- "The naturalisation of architecture's products"
- "Urban regeneration"

and more.

09:30 (Morning session)

14:00 (Afternoon session)

Wednesday, Sep. 3rd 2008

Humanities Bridgeford St. Building
(formerly Kantarovich Building) Room 2.03

Building 35 on Campus Map.

TECHNISCHE
UNIVERSITÄT
DARMSTADT

TU Darmstadt

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

A joint workshop by MARC and Topology of Technology Graduate School, TU Darmstadt