

Architectures, Spaces and Politics

Wednesday, Sep. 3rd 2008

Programme

09:30 - Introductions - Prof. Griem (TU Darmstadt) and Liam Sharratt (MARC)

10:00 - Dr. Lars Frers - TU Darmstadt

"The subtle politics of making matter: Musings on the naturalisation of architecture's products"

10:45 - Sebastian Haumann - TU Darmstadt

"Vernacular Architecture as self-determination: Venturi, Scott Brown, and the controversy over Philadelphia's Crosstown Expressway"

11:30 - Susanne Schregel - TU Darmstadt

"Small spaces for peace? Nuclear weapon-free zones in Great Britain and West Germany in the early 1980s"

12:15 - Dr. Andrew Crompton - Manchester Architecture Research Centre

"The layout of the urban Interface: Newspapers and urban design"

13:00 - 14:00 - Lunch Break

14:00 - Angela Connelly - Manchester Architecture Research Centre

"Methodist Central Halls as sacred spaces"

14:45 - Liam Sharratt - Manchester Architecture Research Centre

"Models as mediators of design in sustainable architectural decision-making: The case of BREEAM"

15:30 - Jan Fischer - Manchester Architecture Research Centre

"Architects as intermediaries of carbon-neutral futures"

16:15 - Rebecca Madgin - University of East London

"The Role of Industrial Heritage in Manchester's Urban Renaissance, 1945-2008"

A joint workshop by:

Graduate School Topology of Technology
Darmstadt University of Technology
Karolinenplatz 5 (#1404)
D-64289 Darmstadt
Germany

Manchester Architecture Research Centre (MARC)
School of Environment and Development
University of Manchester
Oxford Road
UK-Manchester
M13 9PL
Great Britain