

Forum for Economic Dialogue 2019 – "Social and economic origins of populism"

11 November 2019, Kaufleuten

		Session	Speaker
Persson lecture & morning session	9:00	Door opening
	9:30	Welcome address	Joachim Voth
	9:35	Zurich Lecture of Economics in Society	Torsten Persson , Institute for International Economic Studies, Stockholm, "Economic Losers and Political Winners: Sweden's Radical Right"
	10:30	Coffee break
	11:00 (3x15' + 45')	Morning session "Populism: is it economics or culture?"	Barry Eichengreen , Berkeley, "The Populist Temptation" Matthew Goodwin , University of Kent, "National Populism: The Revolt Against Liberal Democracy" Elias Papaioannou , LBS, "The European trust crisis and the rise of populism" Moderator: David Yanagizawa-Drott, UBS Center
	12:30	Lunch
Afternoon session	13:30 (3x15' + 45')	Afternoon session "Dealing with the populist challenge"	Luigi Guiso , Einaudi EIEF, "Global Crises and Populism: the Role of Eurozone Institutions", "Demand and Supply of Populism" Cornelia Koppetsch , TU Darmstadt, "Die Gesellschaft des Zorns. Rechtspopulismus im globalen Zeitalter" Moises Naim , Venezuelan author and former politician, "The End of Power" Moderator: David Dorn, UBS Center
		15:00	Coffee break
Fischer keynote & disputation	15:30	Introduction Keynote Lecture	Ernst Fehr
	15:35	Keynote "TBD"	Joschka Fischer , former Foreign Minister and Vice Chancellor of Germany
	16:30	Reception
	17:00	Disputation "Populism: fostering progress, stagnation or regress?"	Kishwer Falkner , Baroness Falkner of Margravine, Member of the House of Lords Yanis Varoufakis , economist and former Minister of Finance of Greece Moderator: Martin Meyer, NZZ
	18:00	End of event

Status: 23.7.2019, LJ